

CDM Workshop

Objectives:

To ensure individuals understand the roles and responsibilities of duty holders within the Construction (Design and Management) Regulations 2007 (CDM).

To explain the type of construction work that invokes the CDM Regs.

To explain to course members the importance of co-operation, co-ordination and communication in the CDM process.

To identify the expected information for Pre-Construction, the appropriate contents of the Construction Phase Plan and The Health and Safety File.

Course content:

What is CDM?

When does CDM apply to clients?

What are the roles and duties in a CDM project?

Contractual and tendering issues.

Designing in safety at all stages.

The importance of competence.

What is needed in - Pre-Construction Information Pack
Construction Phase Plan
Health and Safety File

Role Playing in relation to the various roles within CDM.

Course review and discussion on specific issues from course members.